Course Introduction
The fundamentals of marketing are introduced in this course, using classic theory and contemporary marketplace applications. Marketing principles are basic to our society, not only in the popular notion of satisfying consumers’ needs through conventional consumer products, but also in contexts of business-to-business markets, not-for-profit markets, & marketing of services.

Course Objectives
During the semester, each student is expected to discuss the following questions and develop answers to them:
1. What do customers need, and what do marketers do with that knowledge?
2. Why do people and organizations consume the way they do?
3. How does the environment affect what, where, when, why and how people consume?
4. What social and ethical responsibilities do marketers have to stakeholders?
5. How does marketing strategy drive an organization?

Course Prerequisites for Marketing majors and minors:
Accounting ACCT 2121; Economics ECON 1202; junior standing

   All exams are closed-book and must be taken on the assigned dates during the semester. The exams will be based on material from lectures, class discussions, and text references assigned on the course schedule and during class.

   There will be no make-up exams. If you have to miss an exam, you must have a verifiable university excused absence (e.g. a medical emergency or a university athletic event).

   The final exam is optional and cumulative. You may choose to take it to substitute for any of the 3 midterms.

2. Pop Quizzes & In-Class Assignments (total 25%)

   Pop quizzes and in-class assignments will be given during class, unannounced. They will be based on material assigned for preparation for class, and/or material discussed in class. No screens allowed during pop quizzes. No make-ups. While a pop quiz is in progress, students will not be permitted to enter or leave the room. Make sure you always have a pen/pencil in class.

   The total pop quiz grade will be the average of all pop quizzes given during the semester.

3. Homework Assignments (not graded weekly)

   1. Homework assignments are set for most weeks of class (details on next page). You are expected to read the assigned pages in the text book then complete each assignment before coming to class.

   2. Assignments will not be submitted to the instructor until exam times.

   3. Print your assignment and bring it to class each week for peer review (except assignment #5).

   4. Subject matter from all 10 assignments may be included in exam questions.

   5. Assignments must be double-spaced, in 12-point type, and in WORD format.

   6. The maximum length of ALL assignments is 150 words. Include your word count on all assignments. Failure to include accurate word count will be penalized. Memo format wording and references do not count as part of your 150 words.

   7. Prepared assignments will be included on all midterm exams.

   8. All assignments are to be presented as formal executive memos, using the format specified below.

   Executive memo format:

   Your work will be graded not only on your appropriate addressing of the assignment questions, but also on your professional presentation. Make a point of proofreading your memo for typos, spelling errors, misused words, etc. Include references where relevant.

   If this sort of writing is unfamiliar or challenging for you, please visit the Writing Resource Center (WRC) in Cameron 125 or Atkins Library or Cone 268, or use virtual consultation for free and professional assistance. Extra credit will be awarded on presentation of the relevant WRC reports (see page 4); 1% for each WRC visit; maximum 3%. Make an appointment:

- ✓ Leave on time (i.e. end of class)
- ✓ No wandering in and out of class
- ✓ NO SCREENS (no computers, tablets, phones, etc.)

5. Extra Credit (max. 3% class participation + max. 3% writing participation)

Class Participation points are designed to encourage students to demonstrate active interest in the subject. Practice critical thinking and creativity. Treat peers with respect.

* CLASSROOM DISCUSSIONS - Participate enthusiastically and constructively.
* ATTENDANCE in regular classes is not mandatory. Exam material comes principally from lectures, class discussions, and assigned readings. There will be pop quizzes and/or in-class assignments in most classes, so missing class is not a great strategy.
* BONUS POINTS are available for worthwhile contributions made in class. Points are awarded at the sole discretion of the instructor, who retains the right to cancel or amend points for any reason. (Reasons may include poor attendance, academic misconduct, contraventions of Classroom Etiquette, etc.) Clarifying questions do not count as contributions to class participation.
* If a student is awarded a bonus point in class, the instructor will record it immediately. If the student does not display his/her name tent, the bonus point may be forfeited. If the student believes a bonus point may not have been recorded, be sure to check with the instructor immediately after the class concerned.
* BONUS POINT tallies will be updated on Canvas on each midterm exam date.
* NEGATIVE CONDUCT. Use of CELL/SMART PHONES in class is distracting and discourteous. You will be asked to leave the room, and your participation grade may be penalized. If you engage in behaviors that distract from the class’s learning environment (such as using a smart phone, allowing screens other than the relevant power point, showing disrespect for classmates, arriving late or leaving early without notice), you will receive -1% for each such infraction.
* All extra credit claims for visiting the WRC (Writing Resource Center) must be submitted to me via email by 5 pm on Friday, December 1. After this time, extra credits will be totaled and posted as line items on Canvas.
* The 2 extra credit categories are posted separately on Canvas: (1) Writing Resource Center, and (2) In-class contributions.

Writing points are intended to encourage improvement in professional writing skills. The Writing Resources Center (WRC) is a free resource on campus, offering one-to-one tutoring to UNCC students, faculty and staff. Effective and professional writing is essential for all business students, and especially in the field of marketing. If you can’t market yourself properly, how can you be entrusted with marketing a brand? Tutors help with essential skills like grammar, proofreading, editing, and avoiding plagiarism.

You may take any MKTG 3110 homework assignments to the WRC for tutoring assistance. Ask your tutor to email you the standard 1-page report. Forward that report to the instructor within a week of the assignment’s due date to receive extra credit for that assignment. You may receive credit from 3 visits to the WRC, although you may visit the WRC as often as you wish. Each WRC credit is worth an additional 1% on top of your total course grade. The instructor’s email acknowledgment confirms your extra credit.

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS & UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Attendance
- Regular attendance is necessary for doing well in this course. As Belk College of Business students you are expected to exercise responsibility in managing your general commitments. I appreciate that you have manifold claims on your time, so attendance in regular classes is not mandatory. Exam material comes principally from lectures, class discussions, and assigned readings. Schedule changes are announced in class.
- You are responsible for any and all materials in missed classes. Pop quizzes are given in most classes, and may not be made up.
- ATTENDANCE is required at the guest lecture. It is worth 5% of your grade for the course. Absence is expensive.
- Practice professional conduct. Tardiness and early departure are disruptive and disrespectful, and are strongly discouraged. (Visit the restroom before or after class, not during class.)

Classroom Etiquette
- Inappropriate behavior in class distracts from the ability of others to benefit from their in-class experiences. Such inappropriate behavior includes arriving late, leaving early, conducting independent conversations, surfing the web during class, etc. Rude and inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated. Since it is the instructor’s responsibility to provide an environment that is conducive to learning for everyone in the class, points will be deducted from the grade of any student who chooses to repeatedly distract others. In particularly egregious cases, the student will be permanently removed from the class.
- No wandering in and out of class (This is not a drop-in event.)
- Under no circumstances will students be permitted to spend their class time working on assignments for other classes, checking email, surfing the web, or printing out homework. Attempts to pursue such activities will be reflected in lower grades and may lead to removal from the class.
- Display your name tent in every class.

Electronic Devices in Class
- Use of cell/smart phones and similar devices are prohibited in the classroom (University rule). Phones must be turned off during class. Students are strongly discouraged from using their phones during class time, including texting.
- Laptop computers may be used to take notes during class, as long as this does not distract you or other students. Please sit in the back row or at the sides of the classroom to minimize distraction of others.

Exam Protocols
- All electronic devices are prohibited during exams. Anyone with a phone on his/her person during an exam will immediately be asked to leave the exam without completing it.
- No hats.
- If you leave the exam room during an exam, you will not be permitted to return.
- Time designated for each exam INCLUDES time for bubbling in names and answers on the Opscan sheets. Do not request extra time for these purposes.
- Students will be asked to leave their belongings, including phones and devices, at the front, side or back of the room during exams.
- Students will be asked to show University or government-issued ID during or after each exam.
Guest Speaker Protocols
- No devices/screens. Take notes the old-fashioned way (paper and pen/pencil).
- No hats.
- Sign in before the speaker begins.
- Smart phone photos of screens, slides, etc., are not allowed without the speaker’s permission.
- Display your name tent.

Quality of Work
The expectation is for professional quality work both in terms of content and presentation.
- Spelling, grammar, punctuation, clarity of expression, and presentation will count in every piece of work you do in this course. If these issues are challenging for you, take advantage of the free services of the Writing Resource Center.
- You are graded in this course (and likewise judged in the ‘real’ world) based on what you say or write and how you present. If mechanics are sloppy, your good ideas may be difficult to appreciate. If presentation is polished but ideas are sloppy, results will be mediocre, accordingly.
- Students whose native language is not English must meet the same quality requirements as others.

Academic integrity: All UNCC students have the responsibility to be familiar with and to observe the requirements of The UNCC Code of Student Academic Integrity. Imprint these on your brain. This code forbids cheating, fabrication or falsification of information, multiple submissions of academic work, plagiarism, abuse of academic materials, and complicity in academic dishonesty. Any special requirements or permission regarding academic integrity in this course will be stated by the instructor, and are binding on the students. Academic evaluations in this course include a judgment that the student’s work is free from academic dishonesty of any type, and grades in this course therefore should be and will be adversely affected by academic dishonesty. Students who violate the code can be expelled from UNCC. The normal penalty for a first offense is zero credit on the work involving dishonesty and further substantial reduction of the course grade. In almost all cases the course grade is reduced to F. Standards of academic integrity will be enforced in this course. Students are expected to report cases of academic dishonesty to the course instructor.

Statement on Diversity: The Belk College of Business strives to create an inclusive academic climate in which the dignity of all individuals is respected and maintained. Therefore, we celebrate diversity that includes, but is not limited to ability/disability, age, culture, ethnicity, gender, language, race, religion, sexual orientation, and socio-economic status.

Accommodations for Disabilities: UNC Charlotte is committed to access to education. If you have a disability and need academic accommodations, please provide a letter of accommodation from Disability Services early in the semester. For more information on accommodations, contact the Office of Disability Services at 704-687-0040 or visit their office in Fretwell 230.
