CLASS POLICIES/BUSINESS "BEST PRACTICES" - SYLLABUS CONTRACT
Please note: The class policies and grading criteria are part of your "contract" with me in this class. Once you register for this class, you agree to the terms and conditions of this contract (In other words, please don't come to me at the end of the semester trying to "renegotiate" the terms and conditions of this contract because of the grade you receive). Please read the fine print!

I have very few rules but please but please take a moment and read them. My goal is to prepare for the real world. My expectations are the same ones you will have throughout your career. If you cannot follow them or you think you might have some challenges, find another professor and section

- Do not arrive late- Make sure you can get to class on time
- If you are late do not walk in if someone is making a presentation
- Assignments will not be accepted if they are late- even by minutes. Plan you work accordingly and make sure you have time to complete your assignments. Spare me the usual excuses- ie. I did not know it was due, my internet was down, etc. I have heard them all. In the real world if you are late with your work it could be your job.
• After you have presented do not miss class. Attendance will be taken and your grade will be dropped by ½ percentage. Show your fellow students the same respect that you’d deserve.

• I usually have a no food policy in class, but because this class is over the lunch hour, I will make an exception.

• If you have any issues or problems that will affect your assignments or presentation talk to me ahead of time. Do not wait until the last minute of or after the fact. We can work out a plan if you work with me.

• If you are sick and missing class, please provide a doctor’s note or other verification.

• I have a very strict no cell phone rule. I will ask you once to put your phone away. If I ask you the second time you will be asked to leave the class.

1. Before the week begins, read assigned chapters, complete online exercises, and check Canvas for the week's announcements. If you don't understand certain concepts in the readings, ask questions in class or schedule a time to meet with me. Students who carefully read the chapters for the week perform better in the class.

2. Attendance (Extra Credit)
   a) Regular attendance in class is expected, and adds extra points to your grade. Attendance will be taken randomly over the course of the semester. Students who attend class on a regular basis and attend on time usually earn a higher grade in the class. Students who are late are counted absent.

   b) If you miss any class sessions, you’re responsible for getting notes and finding out details about the assignments that have been discussed on that day from your colleagues.

   c) Online assignments and in-class exercises reinforce key concepts covered in the text and in lecture. If you miss class, you miss the opportunity to complete exercises that add points to your grade.
3. Oral Assignments – Presentations and final speech
   a) All presentations/speeches are conducted during class time. If a student misses his or her presentation, the student’s presentation grade will be a “zero.” If a student is late on his or her presentation day, ten points will be deducted from the student’s presentation grade. Presentation/speech dates will not be changed once a student confirms the date.
   b) All students must wear professional business suits for the presentations, but not the speeches. Points are deducted for inappropriate attire.

4. Written Assignments – This course has an online component, so you will use Canvas to turn in assignments (no printouts or emails). Assignments are only accepted on time, or you may submit assignments early. The IT service desk can help if you have computer trouble: 704-687-5500. Please note that Canvas is optimized for Chrome or Firefox; sometimes switching browsers can help. Technical difficulty is not an excuse for missing an assignment deadline.

   a) All assignments you turn in must be typed and uploaded to Canvas by the assigned deadline in order to avoid a zero on the assignment. Also, please use 12 point font size in Times New Roman or Arial for better readability. DO NOT USE GOOGLE DOCS FOR YOUR ASSIGNMENTS
b) Plagiarism detection system used
   As a condition of taking this course, all required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review for the detection of plagiarism. You will upload your assignments directly into Canvas.

Plagiarism, as defined in the UNC Charlotte code of student academic integrity is:
- Submitting the work of another as your own.
- Directly quoting from a source without proper citation or use of quotation marks.
- Paraphrasing or summarizing another’s work without acknowledging the source.
- Using facts, figures, graphs, charts, or information without acknowledging the source.
- Purchasing and/or copying commercial term papers or other course work and submitting as your own.

At the very least, plagiarism will be reported to the Dean of Students and the student will be given a “zero” on the assignment with the possibility of more severe penalties (failing the course, expulsion from the university, etc.).
c) All written assignments will be graded on content, format, organization, grammar and spelling. Always proofread and edit your assignments before turning them in. The following criteria will be used in grading your written assignments:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENT (60 %)</th>
<th>WRITING AND GRAMMAR (30 %)</th>
<th>FORMATTING (10 %)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>- Content (missing important information/details)</td>
<td>- Misspelled words</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- Organization (direct/indirect style)</td>
<td>- Format errors</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>- Subject/verb agreement, awkward phrases, dangling expressions, tone, punctuation, grammar, conciseness, clarity, sentence/paragraph length, coherence, word choice, active/passive voice, parallelism, transitions</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5. If you miss an online assignment, speech, or presentation, you will receive a “zero” unless you have a documented, excused absence from the Dean of Students Office. In the case of an excused absence, you may make up the work. Absences may be excused for personal illness or participating as a University representative in an athletic or out-of-town event.

6. Questions about grades must be discussed with me within two class periods after receiving the graded work.

7. Extra Credit
A maximum of ten points in extra credit may be earned on specified assignments and/or attendance. Please contact me if you have questions about extra credit earned.

8. Cell Phones/ Computer/ Video Recordings
Please turn off all cell phones and computers during class. Use of cell phones during class and/or video recordings of lectures is prohibited.
9. Statement on Diversity

   The Belk College of Business strives to create an inclusive academic climate in which the dignity of all individuals is respected and maintained. Therefore, we celebrate diversity that includes, but is not limited to ability/disability, age, culture, ethnicity, gender, language, race, religion, sexual orientation, and socio-economic status.

10. Disability Services

   UNC Charlotte is committed to access to education. If you have a disability and need academic accommodations, please provide a letter of accommodation from Disability Services early in the semester. For more information on accommodations, contact the Office of Disability Services at 704-687-0040 or visit their office in Fretwell 230.

11. Academic Integrity

   Students have the responsibility to know and observe the requirements of The UNC Charlotte Code of Student Academic Integrity. This code forbids cheating, fabrication or falsification of information, multiple submissions of academic work, plagiarism, abuse of academic materials, and complicity in academic dishonesty. Standards of academic integrity will be enforced in this course. Students are expected to report cases of academic dishonesty to the course instructor. All students are required to read and abide by the Code of Student Academic Integrity. Violations of the Code of Student Academic Integrity, including plagiarism, will result in disciplinary action as provided in the Code. Definitions and examples of plagiarism are set forth in the Code. The Code is available from the Dean of Students Office or online at: http://www.legal.uncc.edu/policies/ps-105.html

Here is the tentative class schedule. Please note that it is subject to change. However, please note that you will be given ample time to prepare for all presentations. Given the compressed time and the amount of material that I would like to cover, I want to make sure that we move along at a good pace, but have enough time to focus on skills and concepts that I think are important and that will benefit you most. And because the class size is much smaller, we will have the option of deciding on the schedule as a class based on our activities, etc.
