Course Website: All course materials including syllabus, lecture outlines and other materials are available on Canvas. The pace of my lectures will be based on the assumption that you have read the outlines before you come to class.

Course Description: ECON3122. Intermediate Microeconomics. (3) Prerequisites: ECON 2101 and ECON 2102, MATH 1120 or MATH 1241, and STAT 1220 or equivalent. Microeconomic analysis with emphasis on consumer theory and the theory of production. Resource allocation and the determination of optimum output and pricing by a firm operating under various market structures. Distribution and welfare theories. (Fall)

Course Objectives: This course exposes you to a more rigorous analysis of the concepts established in the principles of microeconomics. You should be comfortable with mathematical tools, including basic algebra, geometry, and calculus. You will develop skills to explain the behavior of consumers, firms, employers and resource owners and the effects of such behavior on product and factor markets. You will appreciate how this course can be used as a practical tool for decision making.

Course Policies:

Academic Integrity: Students have the responsibility to know and observe the requirements of The UNC Charlotte Code of Student Academic Integrity. This code forbids cheating, fabrication or falsification of information, multiple submissions of academic work, plagiarism, abuse of academic materials, and complicity in academic dishonesty. Any special requirements or permission regarding academic integrity in this course will be stated by the instructor and are binding on the students. Academic evaluations in this course include a judgment that the student's work is free from academic dishonesty of any type; and grades in this course therefore should be and will be adversely affected by academic dishonesty. Students who violate the code can be expelled from UNC Charlotte. The normal penalty for a first offense is zero credit on the work involving dishonesty and further substantial reduction of the course grade. In almost all cases, the course grade is reduced to F. Copies of the code can be obtained from the Dean of Students Office. Standards of academic integrity will be enforced in this course. Students are expected to report cases of academic dishonesty to the course instructor.

Grading:

TEST I	100 points
TEST II	100 points
TEST III	100 points
FINAL EXAM (non-cumulative)	100 points
ATTENDANCE	20 points
	420 points

Notes:

1. There will be three 100-point tests during the semester plus a 100-point non-cumulative final exam, totaling 400 points.
2. No make-up tests shall be given for whatever reason. Students who miss one test are required to take a cumulative final exam which carries a weight of 200 points. Students who miss two tests will get an "F" as course grade.
3. Students who wish to drop the lowest test score are required to take the cumulative final exam which carries a weight of 200 points.
4. The final exam, regular or cumulative, will be given according to the university's final exam schedule. There will be no consideration given to students who wish to take the final exam early. The semester ends with the scheduled final exam time.
5. Attendance: Students are expected to attend, to arrive on time and to stay the entire class period. Attendance will be taken 20 times during the semester. Each attendance counts 1 point of your total course points. You are permitted one absence from class without the penalty over the course of the semester. Students are responsible for all information, announcements and materials presented in class. In other words, if you miss a class for any reason, it is your responsibility to get the notes from a classmate of yours and catch up with us.
6. Bonus Opportunities: There are extra credit opportunities. You may earn extra credits from in-class practice questions. Ten percent (10%) of the total points you earn on the practice questions counts as your extra credit. When the extra credits are offered, they must be completed in class and only students who are present are eligible for the extra credits. No make-up for in-class practice questions for whatever reason.
7. The combined scores for tests and non-cumulative or cumulative final exams shall be 400 points. The course grade is determined by the following formula and scale:

$$\text{Average}(\%) = \frac{\text{Test1} + \text{Test2} + \text{Test3} + \text{FinalExam} + \text{Attendance} + 10\% \text{ practice}}{420}$$

A = 90% or above

B = 80% - 89.9%

C = 70% - 79.9%

D = 60% - 69.9%

F = below 60%

Cells phones and other technology: The use of cell phones, beepers, or other communication devices is disruptive, and is therefore not permitted during class. If you have a personal or professional emergency or urgent matter, let the instructor know that you may need to respond to a call during class; turn your cell phone to the "vibrate" option, and leave the room to respond to the call. Otherwise, cell phones and other communication devices should be turned off. I also ask that students do not "surf" the internet, text-message or twitter during class; if you have a personal emergency let me know; you can leave the room to respond to a call or text-message. You may not use the calculator features of your cell phone during exams.
