This syllabus contains the policies and expectations I have established for Management and Organizational Behavior (Management 3140). Please read the entire syllabus carefully before continuing in this course. These policies and expectations are intended to create a productive learning atmosphere for all students. Unless you are prepared to abide by these policies and expectations, you risk losing the opportunity to participate further in the course.

Required Text:

The following textbook and associated material is required for the course. You may purchase a new, used, or electronic copy of the text from the Campus bookstore or from Gray’s Bookstore. You may also decide to purchase the text from several online sources including Ebay, Amazon.com, and CourseSmart (e-book only). Finally, you have the option to purchase an on-line e-book version of the textbook if you purchase “Connect”.

Optional Supplement: McGraw-Hill Connect (This is an on-line study system).

To register for Connect, go to the URL below and click “Register”. Note: To complete the registration process, you will need to purchase “Connect.” If you are purchasing Connect separately from the textbook, go to the URL, click Register, and follow the instructions. If you purchased the access code with the textbook you will need that code to register for Connect.

Academic Integrity:

All students are required to read and abide by the Code of Student Academic Integrity. Violations of the Code of Student Academic Integrity, including plagiarism, will result in disciplinary action as provided in the Code. Definitions and examples of plagiarism are set forth in the Code. The Code is available from the Dean of Students Office or online at: http://www.legal.uncc.edu/policies/ps-105.html

Examinations, Exercises, Quizzes, Attendance, and Grading:

Exams: There will be 3 term exams and a comprehensive final exam. Term exams will consist of 50 multiple choice questions. The exams will emphasize lecture material and the associated textbook content. The comprehensive final exam will consist of 100 multiple choice questions. All material included in the text (whether discussed in class or not) and discussed in the lectures is subject to examination. There is no curve for any exam.

Quizzes, Exercises, etc.: Lecture material will be supplemented with in-class quizzes (both announced and un-announced), and applied/experiential exercises. There is no make-up opportunity for these in-class activities.
Grades will be distributed using the Moodle system as soon as exams are processed and verified.

Make up exams will be given only if you miss an exam as a result of an approved excused absence (see University Policy below). It is your responsibility to contact the instructor concerning make-up exams.

Excused absences may be granted for the following reasons: personal illness, religious holidays, or participating as an authorized university representative in an out-of-town event. Whenever possible, students are expected to seek the permission of the instructor prior to absences.

Absences (excused or unexcused) do no relieve you of responsibility for the material covered in the class missed.

Attendance: Your attendance is expected and encouraged. Preparing for and attending lectures is an important component of the learning process.

Your grade for this course will be determined based on the following:

- Exam #1: 100 points
- Exam #2: 100 points
- Exam #3: 100 points
- Quizzes, Exercises, etc.: 100 points
- Comprehensive Final Exam: 200 points
