(Reasons may include poor attendance, academic misconduct, contraventions of Classroom Etiquette, etc.) Clarifying questions do not count as contributions to class participation.

  ✓ No refreshments
  ✓ Arrive on time (i.e. start of class)

  ✓ No wandering in and out of class (This is not a drop-in event.)
  ✓ We will usually take a break part way through each morning’s class. Please use that time for calls of nature, phone calls, etc.
  ✓ If you plan to use a computer for taking notes in class, please sit at the back or the sides of the room.

Writing points are intended to encourage improvement in professional writing skills. The Writing Resources Center (WRC) is a free resource on campus, offering one-to-one tutoring to UNCC students, faculty and staff. Effective and professional writing is essential for all business students, and especially in the field of marketing. If you can’t market yourself properly, how can you be entrusted with marketing a brand? Tutors help with essential skills like grammar, proofreading, editing, and avoiding plagiarism.

You may take any MKTG 3110 homework assignments to the WRC for tutoring assistance. Ask your tutor to email you the standard 1-page report. Forward that report to the instructor within a week of the assignment’s due date to receive extra credit for that assignment. You may receive credit from 3 assignments, although you may visit the WRC as often as you wish. Each WRC credit is worth an additional 1% on top of your total course grade. The instructor’s email acknowledgment confirms your extra credit.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES & CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

Cell phones & Computers in class:
1. The use of cell phones, beepers, and other communication devices is disruptive, and is therefore prohibited during class.
2. Students may use computers during class for note-taking and other class-related work only.

Students using cell phones or using computers during class for work not related to that class must leave the classroom for the remainder of the class period.

Academic integrity: All UNCC students have the responsibility to be familiar with and to observe the requirements of The UNCC Code of Student Academic Integrity. Imprint these on your brain. This code forbids cheating, fabrication or falsification of information, multiple submissions of academic work, plagiarism, abuse of academic materials, and complicity in academic dishonesty. Any special requirements or permission regarding academic integrity in this course will be stated by the instructor, and are binding on the students. Academic evaluations in this course include a judgment that the student's work is free from academic dishonesty of any type, and grades in this course therefore should be and will be adversely affected by academic dishonesty. Students who violate the code can be expelled from UNCC. The normal penalty for a first offense is zero credit on the work involving dishonesty and further substantial reduction of the course grade. In almost all cases the course grade is reduced to F. Standards of academic integrity will be enforced in this course. Students are expected to report cases of academic dishonesty to the course instructor.
