CATALOG COURSE DESCRIPTION
MBAD 6100: Leadership, Ethics, and the Business Environment Seminar (Fall, Spring) (1). Prerequisite: None. This course is designed to be taken in the first semester as an admitted MBA student as an introduction to Leadership, Ethics, and the Business Environment. Students entering in the summer will take the course in the fall semester.

COURSE IMPORTANCE AND OBJECTIVES
This course sets the stage for success in the MBA program. It provides an orientation to the MBA program, introduces students to key academic and career success factors, and provides an opportunity for networking with MBA faculty, staff and fellow MBA students. The objectives of the course are to introduce students to:

- Effective communication
- Graduate level writing and research
- Business ethics and decision making
- Career management
- Leadership and teambuilding
- Networking
- Curricula Planning
- Other critical skills and concepts essential for business students and professionals

REQUIRED MATERIALS
No text book is required for this class. Refer to Canvas https://canvas.uncc.edu for any required readings and assignments. More information will be shared on the first day of class. Please note that, as per University policy, ALL emails will be sent to your UNC Charlotte email address.

WRITING RESOURCES
Please consult http://guides.library.uncc.edu/mbad_6100 for assistance with writing, proper format, and citations

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT

Students have the responsibility to know and observe the requirements of The UNCC Code of Student Academic Integrity. This code forbids cheating, fabrication or falsification of information, multiple submissions of academic work, plagiarism, abuse of academic materials, and complicity in academic dishonesty. Any special requirements or permission regarding academic integrity in this course will be stated by the instructor and are binding on the students. Academic evaluations in this course include a judgment that the student’s work is free from academic dishonesty of any type; and grades in this course therefore should be and will be adversely affected by academic dishonesty. Students who violate the code can be expelled from UNCC. The normal penalty for a first offense is zero credit on the work involving dishonesty and further substantial reduction of the course grade. In almost all cases the course grade is reduced to F. Copies of the code can be obtained from the Dean of Students Office. Standards of academic integrity will be enforced in this course. Students are expected to report cases of academic dishonesty to the course instructor.

Note: All University and College policies regarding absences, make-ups, drops, incompletes, scholastic dishonesty, and all others issues will be strictly observed.

STATEMENT OF INCLUSION
The Belk College of Business strives to create an inclusive academic climate in which the dignity of all individuals is respected and maintained. Therefore, we celebrate diversity that includes, but is not limited to ability/disability, age, culture, ethnicity, gender, language, race, religion, sexual orientation, and socio-economic status.
