Beta Alpha Psi – Eta Alpha Chapter

Beta Alpha Psi is an international honorary organization for financial information professionals and students. The Eta Alpha Chapter at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte was chartered in 1984. The chapter participates in community service activities and holds weekly professional meetings during the academic year, providing members with invaluable opportunities to learn about the profession and to network with area professionals. The chapter participates in both Regional and Annual meetings of the international organization and in chapter competitions. The chapter has a long history as an active student organization, consistently achieving superior chapter status. Applications for membership are received at the beginning of each semester. More information about membership criteria and chapter activities can be found at the chapter website: <http://belkcollegeofbusiness.uncc.edu/bap/>.
